

REPRODUCTION

Four Good Reasons for Using Beef Sire Semen in a Dairy Herd

There was a time when the « purebred registered » females in a herd were all inseminated with proven sires or sires from progeny testing programs. Practically all of the heifers were destined to be replacement animals. Only when heifers reached first calving were the best selected during their first lactation.

Learn more

Now available

Navigate Your Herd's Success

Compass: A free genetic management software that gives producers exclusive access to the most up-to-date genetic information to make informed, profitable breeding decisions.

compasscan.ca

GENETICS

Lactanet and Holstein Canada proudly launch Compass

Lactanet and Holstein Canada are proud to launch Compass. Developed with the support of Zoetis, this new free online tool will help dairy producers make informed and profitable genetic decisions for their herd. Create your Compass account and get all the details at compasscan.ca

Learn more

FORAGES

Five minutes to better prepare against mycotoxins

It must be a mycotoxin problem... Can we rely on the test results? Which product should I use? So many questions, it's not easy to know where you stand in the complex world of mycotoxins!

Learn more

Don't miss our monthly article!

In this edition:

The milk fatty acid profile: a new tool is now available

Learn more

Events not to be missed

---

Check out our Atlantic Dairy Industry Central Event Calendar for all the events happening near you.

Learn more

See you there!

---